

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, PRECINCT 1 WHEELER COUNTY

P.O. Box 452 • 806-826-5768
Wheeler, Texas 790096

WHEELER COUNTY JUVENILE CRIMINAL DIVERSION PLAN

HB 3186 - EFFECTIVE DATE JANUARY 1, 2025

HB 3186 - Goes into effect on January 1, 2024, and Diversion Process only applies to offenses which occur on or after January 1, 2025. Courts must pay attention to the actual date of offense when a case is filed before proceeding.

Most of the Statutes mentioned in the body of this plan are requirements listed in the Code of Criminal Procedure. Any other statutes will contain the proper code description.

DEFENDANTS THAT ARE ELIGIBLE FOR DIVERSION

- Defendants under 17 years of age at the time of the offense.
- Defendant has not been diverted in the previous 365 days,
- Has never had an unsuccessful diversion,
- There is no objection from the City of Wheeler Attorney, and
- Must have written consent of the defendant and the parent.
- (Art.45.057 (a) - "Parent" includes a person standing in parental relation, a managing conservator, or a custodian.

365 DAYS

- Art. 45-304 (b) - "A child is eligible to enter into a diversion agreement under that subchapter only once every 365 days.
- 365 days between dates of agreements, not offenses or dispositions.

CASES THAT CAN BE DIVERTED - The Justice Court must divert fine-only misdemeanor alleged to have been committed by an eligible defendant other than traffic offenses.

(Nothing in the Code of Criminal Procedure defines the term traffic offenses. Ch. 720 of the Transportation Code defines a traffic offense as any offense under Ch. 521 of the Transportation Code or any Rules of the Road offense.)

YOUTH DIVERSION PLAN AND LOCAL AGREEMENTS (ART. 45.306)

- The Wheeler County Justice of the Peace also serves as the Municipal Judge for the City of Wheeler. The City of Wheeler does not have a Police Department. Juvenile Criminal Offenses in Wheeler County and the City of Wheeler are filed by officers of the Wheeler County Sheriff's Office, Texas Department of Public Safety, or Game Wardens with Texas Parks and Wildlife.

- This Plan is designed for Wheeler County Precinct 1.
- This plan may include agreements with service providers that provide services for diversion strategies. (A Governmental agency, political subdivision, open-enrollment on-line course provider, community service, non-profit organizations, or any other entity that provides services to children or families).
- The Justice court may adopt rules necessary to coordinate services or implement the requirements of the bill.

YOUTH DIVERSION COORDINATOR - DUTIES

HB 3186 Creates a new position of "Youth Diversion Coordinator" and allows courts to designate someone to fulfill the responsibilities and duties laid out in the statute (Art. 45.307)

Wheeler County has not experienced a large amount of fine only, non-traffic offenses necessitating the need for a "Youth Diversion Coordinator". Therefore, The Wheeler County Justice of the Peace and the Administrative Assistant in that Office will assist each other with the following Duties

- Determining whether a Juvenile is eligible for diversion;
- Employing authorized diversion strategies;
- Presenting and maintaining diversion agreements;
- Monitoring diversions;
- Maintaining records on if Diversions are successful or unsuccessful; and
- Coordinating referrals to court.

JUDICIAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS — Government Code 22.1105(a)

In every Year that ends in a 0 or 5, Judges must complete education related to youth diversion and understanding relevant issues of child welfare, including issues related to mental health and children with disabilities.

PROCEDURE ON HOW CASES ARE DIVERTED

Art. 45.305 authorizes diversion by 3 different strategies:

- Graduated sanctions under Education Code Sec. 37.144 for school offenses
- Intermediate diversion (Art. 45.309)
- Diversion by court (Art. 45.310)

Intermediate Diversion

The Judge or Administrative Assistant must advise the Juvenile and Parent before the case is filed of the option of intermediate diversion. (Strategies, diversion agreement, time period, etc., are the same whether intermediate diversion or diversion by the court.)

Intermediate Diversion Requirements

- Juvenile must be eligible for diversion;
- Diversion is in the best interest of the child and promotes safety of the community;
- Child and parent consent with the knowledge that diversion is optional; and
- Child and parent are informed that they may terminate at any time which will result in referral to court.

DIVERSION BY COURT

- Must divert the case of an eligible defendant without requiring a plea.
- Successful compliance results in closure of the case and report to court of successful diversion.
- Failure to comply with the diversion results in referral to the court for a hearing under Art. 45.311

DIVERSION AGREEMENT

- Must be in writing and identify the period of diversion (not to exceed 180 days) and a clear and concise description of the diversions, including the offense and charge being diverted.
- Must outline identity and responsibilities of the child and parent and contain a written acknowledgement and agreement from the child and the parent.
- Must be measurable, realistic, and reasonable, considering the circumstances, the child's age and ability, the charge being diverted, the best interest of the child, and the safety of the community.
- Must include:
  1. Possible outcomes of successful/unsuccessful diversions;

2. Explanation that participating is not an admission of guilt and that a guilty plea is not required to participate;
3. Explanation of the monitoring process;
4. Verification that the child and parent were notified of the child's rights, including the right to refuse diversion, and that the child knowingly and voluntarily consents to diversion.

DIVERSION AGREEMENT – PROCEDURE

- Charges may not be filed (or must be dismissed if filed) if the child is eligible and accepts the terms.
- The court's jurisdiction is extended over the case for the diversion period.
- A copy of the agreement must be provided to the child and parent, Administrative Assistant, and Justice of the Peace.

DIVERSION STRATEGIES - Art. 45.305 lays out many diversion strategies that may be employed

- Requiring the child to participate in a program, teen court, school-related program, educational program, self-improvement program;
- Referring a child to a service provider
  1. At-risk youth services;
  2. Work and job skills training;
  3. academic monitoring or tutoring;
  4. community-based services;
  5. counseling (private or in-school);
  6. mentoring services;
  7. participate in dispute resolution,
  8. submit to alcohol / drug testing;
  9. Complying with physician or health professional treatments;
  10. Ordering a child to pay restitution not to exceed $100 (applies to offense against property under Title 7 of the Penal code);
  11. Perform up to 20 hours of community service;
  12. Any other reasonable action determined by the court.

Diversion Strategies may not require a home-schooled student to attend an elementary or secondary school or use an educational curriculum other than the one selected by the parent.

REFERRAL FOR HEARING - Art. 45.311

If a child appears not to have successfully completed the diversion, the Justice Court will hold a non-adversarial hearing to confer with the parent and child.

The Justice Court may hear from any person the court finds helpful in determining the best path forward.

Options at this hearing may include:

- Amending or setting aside diversion agreement terms;
- Extending the diversion period for a limit not to exceed more than one year from the initial start date;
- Continuing the hearing for up to 60 days;
- Ordering the Parent to perform any act or to refrain from any act;
- Determining the diversion to be successful or unsuccessful. (Unsuccessful diversions may be referred to the juvenile court or to the County Attorney for criminal filing.)

PARENT ORDERS - Any Order to the Parent may not have the substantive effect of interfering with a parent's fundamental right to determine how to raise the child, unless the court finds it necessary to prevent significant harm to the child's physical, mental, or emotional health. Orders to the Parents are enforceable by contempt.

YOUTH DIVERSION

FEES - (Art. 45.312)

The Justice Court may collect a $50.00 administrative fee to defray the costs if this is an accepted term in the diversion agreement.

This fee will be waived if the child's family is indigent, and diversion may not be contingent on payment of a fee.

The Justice Court will, and must, maintain records of all fees paid. The fees must be placed by the treasurer into a special account only used to offset the costs of youth diversion programs.

RECORDS - (Art. 45.313)

The Justice Court must maintain statistics for each diversion strategy authorized. Other than statistical records, all records are confidential under CCP Art. 45.0217.

All records shall be expunged without the requirement of a motion or request, on the child's 18th birthday.

JUVENILE CASES THAT ARE NOT DIVERTED

Juvenile criminal cases which are not diverted, either because the defendant is not eligible or because they are traffic offenses, will still be processed under previous juvenile criminal law.

Art. 45.041(a-2) added to require the court to make diversion an option (up to child/parent) if the child is going to be found guilty at trial and is eligible for diversion under CCP Art. 45.304.

Art. 45.041(b-3) amended to say: if diversion is not required, the judge must allow a defendant who is a child to elect to discharge fines and court costs with community service or tutoring, or pay the fines and court costs now, later, or on a payment plan.
